

HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW@TILBURG
 VIRTUAL PLATFORM ON THE HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

i-HILT E-Lectures 2019-2020 Season

What? Lectures on the history and theory of international law consisting of a 40-minute presentation followed by a 20-minute Q&A.

When & Where? Thursdays at Tilburg University. Alternatively, stream the lectures afterwards at your convenience on our University of Tilburg homepage or check out lectures of seasons past...

<https://www.tilburguniversity.edu/research/institutes-and-research-groups/i-hilt/electures>

	Location
	21 November, 9:30 to 10:30, CZ 9	Dr. Rémy Ambühl, University of Southampton, Southampton, England	Prisonnier de Guerre: The Birth of a New Phrase and a Special Status in the Late Middle Ages
	5 December 2019, 11:00 to 12:00, CZ 7	Stefano Cattelan (Aarhus University, Denmark, I-HILT Visiting Scholar)	Claims of Dominion and the Freedom of the Seas: the Evolution of Mare Clausum Principle in the Early Modern Period
	12 December 2019, 11:00 to 12:00, CubeZ 222	Dr. Marc de Wilde, University of Amsterdam	Hugo Grotius's De societate publica cum infidelibus: Argument for Toleration or Justification of Colonialism?
	13 February 2020, 11:00 to 12:00, CubeZ 222	Hyong-Jin Nho, UvT	Lost in Between Treaties and Tributes: Korea as a Dual Periphery of International Law in the 19th Century
	27 February 2020, 11:00-12:00, CubeZ 222	Maurits den Hollander, UvT	Insolvency and Economic Misfortune in 17th Century Amsterdam
	12 March 2020, 11:00 -12:00, CubeZ 222	Dr. Ingo Venzke, University of Amsterdam	Situating Contingency: How International Law Could Have Been
	26 March 2020, 11:00 to 12:00, CubeZ 222	Remko Mooi, UvT	Protecting the Foreign Creditor: International Insolvency Procedures in Early Modern Frankfurt am Main